Pier Paolo Pasolini: Reading the Language of Reality

Wednesday, February 21, 2018
6:30 PM
CCCM (Mexican Center for Culture and Cinematic Arts)
2401 W 6th Street  - Los Angeles, CA 90057

Authors Gian Maria Annovi (winner of the Ennio Flaiano International Prize for Italian Studies) and Christopher Dominguez will discuss the work of Italian world-renowned writer and filmmaker Pier Paolo Pasolini. Organized by the IIC and the Consulate General of Mexico in Los Angeles.
Gian Maria Annovi is Associate Professor of Italian, Comparative Literature, and Gender Studies at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles. He is the author of Altri corpi (Gedit, 2008), a volume on corporeality and the experimental poetry of the 1960s, and Pier Paolo Pasolini: Performing Authorship (Columbia UP, 2017), winner of the International Flaiano Prize for Italian Studies.

Christopher Dominguez is a Mexican essayist and historian. He has gained international recognition as a literary critic. He is a formal member of El Colegio Nacional, an institution founded in 1943 that seeks to reunite distinguished scientists and the Mexican cultural milieu.

Organized by the Consulate General of Mexico in Los Angeles and the Italian Cultural Institute.

Please note this event is not held at the IIC but will be held at the CCCM (Mexican Center for Culture and Cinematic Arts) located in the Consulate General of Mexico at 2401 W 6th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90057.
